HELP FROM VFIS

Employment Practices Liability (EPL) is a growing concern for all organizations. It is important to keep up with the latest EPL issues and EPL law. But with the other demands placed on you it's tough to find the time to read journals, consult regularly with employment law experts, and maintain extensive files of cases and decisions. VFIS knows that in order for you to keep up with this subject, you need to have a quick and easy to use resource.

That is why VFIS is providing you access to www.GO-VFIS.com. This new resource is easy to use and will provide you with the latest information on employment practices. For VFIS clients, it will include a call-in Helpline.

Our new internet platform can help you reduce the risk of an Employment Practices Liability incident. It covers hot topics such as preventing discrimination, ethics, and leave policies. When a new issue arises, you'll know about it. When you need advice on a unique situation or circumstance, you can call a "live" Helpline. All you will need is a username and password to begin taking advantage of these powerful EPL tools.
